

Animal Emergency

Film by: Kartini Daffahry, Joshua Tang

Produced by: The Moving Visuals Co.

Length: 7 x 30'

Year of Production: 2014

Format: HD

Genre: Nature, People

Language Versions: English

Animal Emergency is about the animals, the animal owners and the vets, a series that is heartwarming and at times heartbreaking.

“Animal Emergency” is a reality documentary series based on real characters and events that follows the daily happenings at animal clinics looking after animals both large and small. Twenty-four hours a day the veterinary specialists on duty deal with an interesting array of cases. Some are routine but there are those that are a matter of life or death.

Each week this exciting new series joins busy vet teams at small animal clinics and also the clinics at Singapore Zoo and the Singapore Turf Club as we follow the drama, the highs and lows of caring for Singapore’s cherished animals.

“Animal Emergency” is about the animals, the animal owners and the vets. It is a series that is heartwarming and at times heartbreaking. Each episode will feature stories of passion, of love and the science that goes into caring for all the creatures in our lives.