

Wealthy Manor Show Synopses

1. Episode 1 (101)

“Camelot” Over eighteen designers transform a twenty-two thousand square foot home into a tribute to the legendary city.

2. Episode 2 (102)

“Pineapple House” A tour of the Southeast’s premier design firm reveals how master craftsmen work their magic.

3. Episode 3 (103)

“Winter House” Hermes and other high-fashion manufacturers add dash and sparkle to a winter home just in time for the festivities.

4. Episode 4 (104)

“EcoManor” Laura Turner Seydel, daughter of media mogul and environmental philanthropist Ted Turner, lets us tour her LEED certified luxury home.

5. Episode 5 (105)

“Giverny Part 1” Come visit the show home inspired by the life and works of impressionist painter Claude Monet. Giverny’s lovely grounds and gorgeous, well-designed rooms are enough to inspire any artist, visitor or guest.

6. Episode 6 (106)

“Giverny Part 2” Beautifully landscaped grounds and elegant design await as we continue our tour of the home inspired by the great French master.

7. Episode 7 (107)

“Town & Country” An Urban Loft that packs chic elegance into a modern frame, and a unique country home styled like an Italian villa. Wealthy Manor visits two homes that define ‘upscale’ with their own unique fashion.

8. Episode 8 (108)

“Hawks Ridge Part 1” An eighteen-hole golf course and a luxury home community. That’s what you’ll find in a place call Ball Ground at an estate called Hawk’s Ridge, where the sport of Scottish royals meets North Georgia’s fine home elegance.

9. Episode 9 (109)

“Hawks Ridge Part 2” The personalized tour of this private paradise continues on this episode of Wealthy Manor.

10. Episode10 (110)

“Winter House 2011 Part 1”. That’s what people think of when they think of penthouses, urban condos and four-star hotels. This episode focuses on a high-rise, with apartments rivaling any luxury home.

11. Episode11 (111)

“Winter House 2011 Part 2”. The tour of the high-rise luxury apartments continues.

12. Episode12 (112)

“Habachy”. Wealthy Manor highlights the career and home of eclectic designer Michael Habachy.

13. Episode13 (113)

“Sterling Hall”. The first season concludes with a look at an opulent spread in home whose very name means high-end beauty.